

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE

The second edition of Miss Kroeger's Guide to the study and use of reference books was published in October, 1908, and included publications of the first part of that year. This first supplement covers the reference books of the two years 1909 and 1910 and includes also a very few books of 1908 which appeared too late in that year to be considered by Miss Kroeger for her revised list.

The present supplement includes the following classes of publications: (1) new books of 1909-1910, (2) new editions of works listed in the last edition of the Guide, (3) new volumes of unfinished works included in the Guide and (4) additional volumes of continuations which appear either irregularly or less often than once a year. New volumes of annuals which appear regularly have been taken for granted and are not included here. The new volumes covered by section 3 have been listed, because, as reference books are not infrequently published somewhat outside the regular trade channels, it is not always easy for the librarian to keep track of the latest new volume from the bibliographies accessible in the average library.

In general, the bibliographical form of the Supplement follows that of the Guide itself. Such minor differences as exist are mainly due to the fact that Library of Congress cards have been used as the bibliographic basis of the Supplement and the details of imprint, etc., have been taken from these cards. The arrangement of classes and subclasses of the Guide has been strictly adhered to.

PERIODICALS, ESSAYS, DEBATES, DISSERTATIONS

PERIODICALS

Govt reports
Readers' guide to periodical literature (cumulated). An index to 99 periodicals and also in the same alphabet to 430 books, reports, etc., constituting a supplement to the second edition of the A. L. A. index to general literature. 1905-1909, ed. by Anna Lorraine Guthrie. Minn. Wilson, 1910. v. 2. $24.

Combines in one alphabet all the references in the five volumes of the annual Readers' guide, 1905-09, and also some 380 pages of new matter, principally the indexing of essays, etc.

GENERAL LISTS

Severance, Henry Ormal. Guide to the current periodicals and serials of the United States and Canada, 1909. 2d ed. Ann Arbor, [Mich.] Wahr, 1908. 435 p. 26<sup>cm</sup>.

UNION LISTS

Philadelphia-Free library. Supplement to a list of serials in the principal libraries of Philadelphia and vicinity, prepared by J. P. Lamberton. Philadelphia free library. 1910. (Bulletin no. 9)

Supplements the original list (Guide, p. 9) by supplying omissions, principally in 18th century periodicals, and by adding the periodicals of two libraries not previously included. Adds about 1,000 titles.

GERMAN

Bibliographie der deutschen zeitschriften litteratur. Ergänzungs-Bde. 1-2, 1896-1908. Gautzsch b. Leipzig, Dietrich, 1908-10. v. 22A, 24A. 50m.

Numbered as v. 22A and 24A of the whole set. The first of these two supplementary volumes indexes about 300 titles not included in the main list for the years 1896-98; the second volume indexes a different supplementary list of 456 titles for the years 1896-1908.

SPECIAL INDEXES

Astronomy

General index to Sidereal messenger, v. 1-10 (1882-91). Astronomy and astrophysics, v. 1-3

Drama

Dramatic index for 1909, covering articles and illustrations concerning the stage and its players in the periodicals of America and England; with a record of books on the drama and of texts of plays. Bost. Boston book co. 1910. $3.50.

Issued separately, and also as part 2 of the Annual magazine subject index, 1909. Contains the cumulation of the Dramatic index published in the quarterly numbers of the Bulletin of bibliography.

"The Dramatic index is a complete list for 1909 of all stage portraits, scenes from plays, articles about the theatre,—critical, historical, biographical,—notices of production, information about librettists. It is also an index to published plays and the texts of dramas and synopses of plots. It covers the books as well as the periodical press of 1909."—Preface. Indexes some 150 American and English periodicals.

Economics

Journal of political economy. Bibliography of economics for 1909. A cumulation of bibliography appearing in the Journal of political economy from Feb., 1909, to Jan., 1910, inclusive. Chic. Univ. of Chicago press, 1910. 282 p. 25<sup>cm</sup>. $2.50.

Indexes 97 periodicals in English, German, French and Italian. For full description see under Political science and economics—Bibliography.

Index to legal periodicals (published in conjunction with the Law library journal). Madison, [Wis.] Am. ass'n of law libraries, 1909-1910. $5 per yr.

Quarterly lists with an annual cumulation published each January. The annual number consists of both an author and a subject index, the latter an alphabetical classed arrangement according to the system used by the West publishing company in the American and Decennial digests. The first annual number indexes 39 periodicals for 1908, the second 46 periodicals for 1909.

Library science

Cannons, H. G. T. Bibliography of library economy. A classified index to the professional periodical literature relating to library economy, printing, methods of publishing, copyright, bibliography, etc. Lond. Stanley Russell, 1910. 448 p. 7s. 6d.

"It now comprises over 15,000 entries arranged in classified logical sequence, under 1,900 subject headings, entries being placed in order of date to present the subject in its historical aspect; the whole being preceded by an elaborate and detailed scheme of classification, specially prepared for the work, and an alphabetical subject index comprising over 2,500 direct references. It thus forms a classified bibliography to all articles appearing in the professional publications during the period 1876-1909."—Preface.

Indexes 48 English and American library periodicals, government reports and yearbooks, including one Australian and one Irish periodical.

Science

Crane, Walter Richard. Index of mining engineering literature, comprising an index of mining, metallurgical, civil, mechanical, electrical and chemical engineering subjects as related to mining engineering. N. Y. Wiley, 1909. 812 p. 23½<sup>cm</sup>. $4.

NEWSPAPERS

Ayer's American newspaper annual, 1910. Phil. Ayer, 1910. $5.

Not a new work, but the 1910 issue differs from other earlier editions in that it is a consolidation of the American newspaper annual and Rowell's American newspaper directory. (Guide, p. 13.) This volume lists 24,089 publications, of which 2,000 are new.

Street's Pandex of the news, 1903. A cumulative index and digest of the newspapers of the United States, ed. and comp. by Arthur I. Street. Chic. Pandex co., 1909. 343 p. $10 w. subs. to mo. nos.

A minute subject index and digest of the events of the year, arranged alphabetically, and referring to date of the event, not to title or page of any special newspaper. The digest feature is sufficiently full to save reference to the newspapers themselves when only the main facts are wanted. While the index is not complete it is a more extensive list than either the Index to current events or the Index of dates in the Annual Library index. No volume for 1909 or 1910 has yet been issued.

GENERAL LITERATURE AND ESSAYS

Readers' guide (cumulated), 1905-1909.

This work now includes a supplement to the "A. L. A." index to general literature. For full description see under Periodicals.

DISSERTATIONS

Carnegie institution of Washington — Department of historical research. List of doctoral dissertations in progress, December, 1909. [Washington, D. C., 1909] 24 p. 23<sup>cm</sup>.

Caption title: Doctoral dissertations already printed. This list includes names only which have appeared in previous "Lists of dissertations in progress," from 1897 to the present time, except that, Columbia having also sent titles from 1884 to 1897, and Harvard from 1876 to 1897, these have been included, p. 12-24.

Gives two separate lists: (1) Dissertations in progress but not completed, and (2) Dissertations recorded in earlier lists as in progress but since completed. First list arranged alphabetically by colleges, second by author.

ENCYCLOPEDIAS

AMERICAN

↓ Appleton's new practical cyclopedia; a new work of reference based upon the best authorities, and systematically arranged for use in home and school, ed. by Marcus Benjamin. . . assisted by Arthur E. Bostwick. . . . Gerald Van Casteel. . . George J. Hagar. . . with an introduction by Elmer Ellsworth Brown. N. Y. Appleton, 1910. 6v. illus. plates, (partly col.), maps. 25<sup>cm</sup>. $18. Eng.

A small popular work, of use principally in the library which cannot afford one of the larger encyclopedias. Some inaccuracies have been pointed out.

ENGLISH

✓ Encyclopædia Britannica; a dictionary of arts, sciences, literature and general information. Ed. 11. Camb. [Eng.] and N. Y. Univ. press, 1910. v. 1-14.

The most important reference book of 1910, to be completed in 29 volumes including an index volume. Based upon the 9th edition, 1875-88, and the supplementary 10th edition, 1902-03, but entirely revised and rearranged. The characteristic Britannica features of signed articles by specialists and full bibliographies are continued but the material is arranged by much smaller subjects, and the almost simultaneous publication of all volumes makes all parts of the alphabet equally well up-to-date. Biographies of living men are included and the treatment of American subjects is fuller than in earlier editions. Pronunciation is not marked, and all cross references are omitted from the body of the work, to be given in the index instead. Printed in two forms, on ordinary paper and on India paper. The India paper edition can not be recommended for library use on account of the tendency of the pages to cling together and fold. The ordinary paper edition is supplied in three special library bindings: buckram, A. L. A. specifications, $5 a vol.; half-morocco, Library Assoc. (Eng.) specifications, $5.50 a vol.; half-morocco, special Chivers binding, $5.75 a vol.

Routledge's every man's cyclopædia of biography, history, geography, general information, law, spelling, abbreviations, synonyms, pseudonyms, etc., etc.; ed. by Arnold Villiers. Lond. Routledge, N. Y. Dutton, 1910. 648 p. 20½<sup>cm</sup>. 3s. 6d. $1.50.

A satisfactory small work of the "desk" or "hand-book of information" type.

Now completely revised in all departments including also a dictionary of geography and biography, being the latest authentic quarto edition of the Merriam series. W. T. Harris, Ph. D., LL. D., editor in chief, F. Sturges Allen, general editor. Sprgrf. [Mass.] Merriam, 1909. lxxx, 2620 p. illus. plates (partly col.) 31½<sup>cm</sup>. $12.
